

Creative Space

A talk Programme brought to you by Yeovil Art Space Friday 2nd July 10am – 12noon (Zoom)

An online event brings together a guest speaker across the UK, exploring the artistic value that artists and organisations can offer for community and in public spaces. What are the impact and benefits that are offered by art and creativity on cultural regeneration? How do we create space that has shared purposes?

SESSION 1 - Start 10 am

Welcome

by Zoe Li, Founder & Project Director, Yeovil Art Space

Principles of Co-creation

by Kim Wide, CEO, Take A Part

Kim Wide MBE is Founder, CEO and Artistic Director of Take A Part. She received an MBE in the 2020 Queen's New Year's Honours List for 'Services to Social Engagement in the Arts'. Take A Part: takeapart.org.uk

Local authority partnership and cultural regeneration

by Kath Wynne-Hugue, Strategic Lead for Cultural Development at Kirklees Council

Kath Wynne-Hague has worked across Local Government since 2007; cultural development; engagement and education; project management; and as an independent practitioner with experience ranging from voluntary and community action; health and wellbeing in care settings; visitor economy and cultural business development. She works with partners, communities, and stakeholders to generate new ideas and creative solutions.

Creation of physical space for creatives and cultural activities in the neighbourhood

by Jack Gibbon, Director, Bricks

Jack Gibbons, founder of BRICKS, is a producer and organisation director with a passion for supporting cross sector creative collaborations and developing the ecology for visual arts practice in Bristol. www.bricksbristol.org/team/jack-gibbon

Q & A

BREAK approx. at 11am

SESSION 2

Social enterprise, capital project and impact of economic and social development by Georgie Grant: Onion Collective Georgie Grant, director at Onion Collective, her work focuses on building community power. She co-ordinates the delivery of multiple community action projects and leads on community engagement. She is a fervent believer that by connecting people and organisations into a strong network the social infrastructure of a place is strengthened and becomes more resilient.

www.onioncollective.co.uk

Linking with the youth by Tom Goddard

Tom is a visual artist, Based in Cardiff, with a social arts practice in which he works with young people and the community to consider the past and envision the future. Tom is working with Yeovil Art Space new commission. thomas-goddard.com

Art in Public Spaces by Denman & Gould

Denman & Gould (Eleanor Goulding and Russell Denman) is an art and design studio, based in Dorset, specialising in public and community-based projects. They work across multiple disciplines, from the design and build of large-scale public art projects. Eleanor and Russell are currently working with Yeovil Art Space new commission. denmangould.com

Shapes of Yeovil by You and Me Architecture

You and Me is a multi-disciplinary architecture platform who believe that even the smallest interventions can have a big impact and community participation. They have been appointed by Yeovil Refresh to create public artwork in Middle Street. Exhibition at Yeovil Art Space from 15 - 31 July 2021 youandmearchitecture.com

Q & A

Event ends at 12noon

To attend, please registered via Zoom

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZIkfuisrjMtE9CBtTtOpw00hHRFXxtseKQ>

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

Contact and enquiry: Natasha Rand, Engagement Producer, Yeovil Art Space natasha@yeovilartspace.uk / 07774883489

www.yeovilartspace.uk

Facebook & Instagram @Yeovil Art Space

Unit 23 Vicarage Walk, Quedam Shopping Centre, Yeovil, Somerset BA20 1EU